

Burdine
1

1. Richard Burdine born circa 1700, France, occupation Minister?, married before 1740, Catherine Unknown, born circa 1710. Richard died Oct 1761, Culpeper County, VA.

Also spelled Bordine/Burdayne/Burdoin/Burdyne.

Children:

- + 2. i Reginald Burdine born before 1740.
- + 3. ii Barbara Burdine born circa 1740.
- + 4. iii Rev Samuel Burdine born 29 May 1745.
- 5. iv Hannah Burdine born Culpepper County, VA.
Hannah Shotwell was in the Pendleton District, South Carolina, 1800 census.

- + 6. v Nathaniel Burdine born before 1755.
- + 7. vi John Burdine born 1761.

4. Rev Samuel Burdine (I. Richard') born 29 May 1745, Orange County, VA, married circa 1771, Mary Fletcher, born 1 Jul 1754, Orange County, VA. Rev lives 1801, George's Creek, Pickens County, SC. Newberry Newberry County, South Carolina, 7/31/1792 - 9/11/1792, Samuel Burdine of Newberry County from William Gray of Laurens County 200 acres on branch of Kings Creek; Newberry - 1/9/1793 - 5/31/1793, Samuel Burdine & Mary his wife of Newberry County to Rosanna Glynn 100 acres being part of 200 acres where the old plantation was, lying and crossing Kings Creek and Old Saluda Road, adjoining Nichols Ford, and William Wilson; Pendleton County, South Carolina, 4/12/1796, to Samuel Burdine from James Duff, 267 acres on Georges Creek; Pendleton - 4/12/179, to Samuel Burdine from James Duff, 628 acres on Georges Creek; Pendleton County, South Carolina, 5/15/1797, to Samuel Burdine from William Jamison 151 acres on Georges Creek; Pendleton County South Carolina, 10/12/1818-5/5/1828, from Samuel Burdine to son Abraham Burdine 370 acres on Georges Creek waters of Saluda River in Pendleton Dist., South Carolina, being the land whereon the said Samuel Burdine do now live, being part of a tract of land granted to Robert Burdine in 1787 (should be Reginald-Richard?)

1790 U.S. Census, 96 Dist., Newberry County, South Carolina: Sam Burdine head of house, 2 males over 16, 2 males under 16, and 2 females.

1800 U.S. Census, Pendleton Dist., South Carolina: Samuel Burdine head of house, one male 45 and over, one male age 16- 26, and one female age 26-45.

1810 Fed Cen, Pendleton Dist., South Carolina: Saml Burdine head of house, one male 45 and over, one male age 26-45, one male under 10, one female 45 and over, one female 16-26, and 4 slaves.

February 1792, jury duty.

ANNOUNCING

The publication of the Burford Family History Book

The Elder Daniel Burford: His Ancestors and Descendants of America
1684-1997

By Betty Arnold Loftiss

Dear Sir or Ma'am:

The book will be a hard bound, 8 1/2 x 11", family history book on the Burford family and will include his ancestors and descendants, with a full name index, and a total of 804 pages. This book will consist of documents in writing, and will include birth, death and marriage records, with wills, deeds, letters, obituaries, newspaper articles and other court records. There will be photographs, maps and other important information included in this book. There are 6865 descendants, spanning 14 generations and a total of 96 pictures. This book will have some very old and rare photographs (otherwise not available to the public).

Starting with William Burford, the emigrant, and his son William Burford, Jr., of King William County, Virginia. The book will trace Daniel Burford, the Elder of Virginia and his descendants into North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee, Missouri, Kentucky, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, and will touch on other states. This book will cover William Burford of Georgia and his children, with an emphasis on Solomon Burford's children of Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee and Texas, as well as the children of Philip Terrell Burford of North Carolina and Tennessee; Daniel Burford and his family of Amherst County, Virginia; and the Reverend Daniel Burford and his family of Smith County, Tennessee. The book will also cover the Bufford family, and where they tie into the Burford family.

Just some of the collateral lines listed in this Burford Book are: Lewter, Faison, Hammond, Twitty, Hillard, Cotton, Smith, Wright, Mobley, Harris, Gillespie, Walker, Blair, Key, Isaacs, McCown, Saul, Bickel, Blanks, Bowles, and so many more I cannot name them all.

This book is not a phone book listing; it is professionally designed and printed on acid-free, 50 lb. paper that will last a life time.

The book will be released at the Burford reunion on August 2nd, 1997.

Please be sure and place your order soon. A $25.00 deposit will reserve your copy of this book. All proceeds from this Book will go to the Burford Cemetery Association.

Betty Arnold Loftiss
1397 Scotland Road
Rt. 3 Box 503
Coldwater, Mississippi
38618

Please send me -----copy/copies of the book entitled The Elder Daniel Burford: His Ancestors and Descendants of America by Betty Arnold Loftiss. Please make the check out to the Burford Cemetery Association.

I have enclosed the sum of $-----, ($25.00 deposit for each book ordered). The total price of the book will be $55.00 and $5.00 to cover the cost for shipping and handling. Total of $60.00.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____

STATE _____

ZIP _____

Please consider buying a copy of this book to be placed in your local library in honor of your ancestor. Mail check to: Mrs. Betty Arnold Loftiss, 1397 Scotland Road, Rt. 3 Box 503, Coldwater, Mississippi 38618 or Ms. Jean Burford, 652 Howell Street, Florence, Alabama 35630.